

ORDINANCE

No. 1-2 of 2007

PERRY TOWNSHIP

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE TOWNSHIP
TO PROHIBIT PARKING ON CERTAIN STREETS
DURING PERIODS OF SNOW ACCUMULATION.

WHEREFORE, there are certain streets within the Township that are narrow and/or have a large amount of traffic traveling upon them;

WHEREFORE, traffic problems on these particular streets are increased during periods of snow accumulation;

WHEREFORE, during periods of snow accumulation, it becomes difficult for the Township to maneuver snowplows through certain streets in the Township;

WHEREFORE, during periods of snow accumulation, it becomes extremely difficult to push the snow off the street if there are vehicles parked along the side of the street:

THEREFORE, the Township hereby enacts the following Ordinance:

1. The Township shall have the authority to prohibit parking along certain streets located within the Township during periods of snow accumulation.
2. The procedure to prohibit parking on certain streets within the Township during periods of snow accumulation shall be as follows:
 - A) The Supervisors shall determine the appropriate streets to be designated as NO PARKING AREAS during periods of snow accumulation.
 - B) Appropriate signs shall be placed on the streets that prohibit parking during periods of snow accumulation.

3. Enforcement. This Ordinance shall be enforced by the Perry Township Police Department by filing a summary citation at the District Justice Office. The fine shall not be less than $25.00 no more than $300.00.

4. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall become effective five days after this date.

THIS ORDINANCE was enacted this 2nd day of January, 2007.
